

Creating a tradition of leadership, advocacy and action!

An Invitation to Join an Online Listserv for Edo Women

Voices of Edo Women (ViEW) is an International, non governmental, non partisan group-open to any Edo woman of repute; residing in Nigeria or abroad. We are particularly interested in developing the voices of Edo women in matters that affect them and in decision-making. We aim to advocate for the voices of Edo women to be included in the cultural and socio-economic landscape of Edo state and Nigeria!

This is a space that richly fosters networking, collaboration across differences, scholarship, leadership, and enhancing inter-generational relationships through mentoring of younger Edo women. This online e-group will serve as a safe, vibrant and engaging space to discuss issues that affect Edo women worldwide and disseminate information that will positively impact the lives of our women to enhance their roles as: women, wives and mothers!

Subscribers Profile

Our subscribers are professionals, academics, homemakers, business women, community activist and others who are simply trying to reinvent themselves.

Who can Join?

- Women from Edo State
- Women married to Men from Edo State
- Friends of Edo Women (male or female)

How to Join?

Send an email to:

voicesofedowomen-subscribe@yahoogroups.com

Or contact: joan.O'sa Oviawe at voicesofedowomen@yahoo.com

What to Expect on our listserv

- Engaging discussions on issues from politics to raising successful children
- Online consortium of women achievers sharing best practices, success stories and lessons learned from life experiences

What not to Expect on our listserv

- Unproductive exchanges
- Defamation of Character
- Conflict/Rancor

Come and be at the nexus of social engagement, civic responsibility, and enriched social commentary by and for Women of Edo descent!